

SCRIPTURE PASSAGE:

Details

Carefully read the passage paying attention to details, such as names, places, verbs, cultural elements...any words you see in the text. You can jot these words and any notes about them here:

Interwoven

Read the passage again at a normal pace, noticing the details in context and how God intentionally wove them together.

God

Finally, the most important question is: What did God reveal about Himself in the passage?

Sometimes the Lord will have you meditate on what you have studied before revealing these at a later time...and that is okay. Take a moment to thank Him for teaching you.
